

PROFILE

Ms Kadariah Maunah has 17 years of experience working with insolvents and company directors facing personal bankruptcies and winding up companies.

She worked in the Insolvency and Public Trustees Office from 1986 to 2002. In her days with the IPTO, she was part of the Ministry of Law OAPT (Official Assignee & Public Trustee) Best Bankruptcy (Giro) Team 1996 and was given the IPTO Special Person Award 2000.

She then started her sole-proprietorship of Knowledge Empowerment Centre in 2002 with the objective of helping people who are facing debts, credit card problems, bankruptcy and insolvency issues, writ of seizure and sale.

As a volunteer mediator of Ministry of Law, Community Mediation Centre from 2005 to present, she was awarded Most Active Newcomer Award – Ministry of Law Community Mediation Centre in 2008.

