

Kelvin joined Drew & Napier in 1995, and is a Director in the Litigation & Dispute Resolution Department. Kelvin practices corporate and commercial litigation in the Singapore Courts as well as in international arbitrations. Kelvin handles a wide range of dispute resolution work, from corporate and commercial disputes, employment disputes, insurance matters, intellectual property litigation, and trust and estate litigation.

Practical Law Company recommends Kelvin in the area of Labour and Employment Benefits Law, hailing his experience "in both contentious and non-contentious employment matters with some focus on corporate labour policies and breaches of contract".