

Vinit has been in practice since 1998. He was with Mssrs Edmund Pereira from 1998 to 2002. He started his own law firm in 2002. Vinit is also a qualified accountant since 2003.

He has his fair share of criminal cases throughout his practice. They range in a wide spectrum which includes amongst other things, offences relating young persons, internet activities and cases within the Computer Misuse Act.

He gives legal counseling at the grassroots level once a month and was on the Criminal Practice Committee. He is also a volunteer for CLAS.