

IMPERSONATION OF LEGAL PRACTITIONER – 4 JUNE 2026

Impersonation of Legal Practitioner

The Law Society of Singapore has been notified that e-mails purporting to be from Mr. Rajwin Singh Sandhu, a legal practitioner currently practising at Magna Law LLC, have been sent to various recipients using a spoofed e-mail address (collectively, the “Phishing E-mails”).

The Phishing E-mails were sent using a spoofed version of Mr. Rajwin’s former e-mail address - “rajwin@rajwinyong.com”. In each case, the Phishing E-mails contained business proposals and attachments which appeared to be drafted in a professional manner.

Recipients who responded to the Phishing E-mails received replies purporting to confirm that the correspondence genuinely originated from Mr. Rajwin.

A police report has been filed by Mr. Rajwin.

Risk Management Tips

- Please remind your friends, colleagues, and clients to perform direct verification checks with you and/or your law firm, should they receive any correspondence (e.g. e-mails) purporting to be from you and/or your law firm, especially if no prior contact has been made.
- Should there be any doubts as to the authenticity of any correspondence which is purported to be from a legal practitioner, please contact the relevant law firm directly for verification.
- To check whether a legal practitioner and/or law firm in Singapore is registered with the Legal Services Regulatory Authority (“LSRA”), please perform a search on the LSRA’s integrated search function at - <https://eservices.mlaw.gov.sg/lra/search-lawyer-or-law-firm/>. This same search function may be used to verify the telephone number of a Singapore Law Practice.
